

National Day of Truth and Reconciliation

September 30

The day honours the children who never returned home and Survivors of residential schools, as well as their families and communities.

Public commemoration of the tragic and painful history and ongoing impacts of residential schools is a vital component of the reconciliation process.

Wear orange as a symbolize of the loss of culture, freedom, and self-esteem that many Indigenous children experienced.

Pastoral Care

Our committee's mission is to provide support and care for our members, particularly during times of need, such as illness, bereavement, or personal challenges. We also celebrate successes and special occasions.

To achieve this goal effectively, we need help in monitoring and documenting these needs so that we can respond promptly with visits, cards, or other forms of support. If you are aware of an individual in need of assistance, kindly reach out to the church office, Paula Hanna, or one of the members of the Pastoral Care team. To reach a member contact the office @ info@auroraunitedchurch.ca.

Pastoral Care Team:
Paula Hanna, Kathie Blackman, Jackie Catto, Susan Eaton, Nancy Newman, Marilyn Patterson, Nels Patterson, Mary Smith, and Suzanne Whitehurst.
