

AUC Movie Night
Tues., April 14th
7 pm ~ Binions Hall

An American Rhapsody, is based a true story and set in 1950. The story follows a Hungarian couple who are forced to flee the oppressive Hungarian People's Republic for the United States. Due to complications, they must leave their infant daughter, Suzanne, behind. Five years later, the family is reunited. Suzanne (starring a young Scarlett Johansson), now a rebellious teenager, struggles to adjust to her new life and eventually travels back to Budapest to uncover her past and true identity. After the movie, we plan to have a guest speaker discuss her own true account of a more recent "Canadian Rhapsody" - an escape from Hungary to Canada.

Refreshments and treats will be provided. There is no charge for Movie Night. Please bring a friend.

AUC will be in need of two pianos this year for our new building. If you have one of the following available in very good working order and wish to donate it to our church, please contact Crawford (Chair of Property Committee) at 905-830-6068:
One grand piano (one size or two above a baby grand)
One upright piano
 Thanks!
